Advanced Features

- Unique Merge Query feature allows cross-database comparisons along common dimensions
- Visualize data easily as a line chart, bar chart or pie chart, including animation
- Efficient handling of large datasets; e.g. trade statistics by commodity and social expenditure data
- Save queries for re-use (requires system login)
- Generous download size of up to 1 000 000 data cells

Usability

- View multilingual tables in French or English
- Switch interface language between French and English
- Compatible with IE 6, 7 and 8, Mozilla-based browsers; Safari 3.x, Opera 9.x and Google Chrome and higher

Customize the view!

Select variables in each dimension.

Re-arrange the layout of the dimensions in the table.

Specify display settings such as hide or show empty rows/columns, set number of decimals, or perform simple calculations.

Established in 1961 and based in Paris, France, the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) unites the expertise and experience of the world's leading economies to address the economic, social, environmental and governance challenges of the globalising world.

The Organisation provides a setting where governments compare policy experiences, seek answers to common problems, identify good practice and coordinate domestic and international policies. Drawing upon the specialist knowledge of experts from its 30 member countries and 100 partner countries, the OECD is in a unique position to offer reliable data and insightful analysis on a very wide range of topics.

Member Countries: Australia • Austria • Belgium • Canada • Czech Republic • Denmark • Finland • France • Germany • Greece • Hungary • Iceland • Ireland • Italy • Japan • Korea • Luxembourg • Mexico • Netherlands • New Zealand • Norway • Poland • Portugal • Slovak Republic • Spain • Sweden • Switzerland • Turkey • United Kingdom • United States.

About OECD iLibrary

OECD iLibrary, the successor to SourceOECD, is OECD's Online Library for Books, Papers and Statistics and the gateway to OECD's analysis and data. Once fully featured OECD iLibrary replaces SourceOECD.

As with SourceOECD, OECD iLibrary users at subscribing institutions are able to conduct searches, retrieve listings of publications meeting the search criteria, and choose to download selected titles in various formats, or selected statistical data in spreadsheet format. Access is available for titles published from January 1998 onwards. OECD iLibrary is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and provides unlimited multi-user access controlled by IP address/range.

Several thousands institutions worldwide make OECD content available to their users through OECD iLibrary and about 1.000 universities, think tanks, and governmental agencies are making all books, papers, statistical databases (or some combination thereof) available to more than 15 million users.
